

Please read this information carefully before making a booking with the Forest School Training Cooperative (FSTC). These terms and conditions form the basis of a contract between FSTC and the client(s) and are not subject to variation without the written consent of FSTC. This agreement is binding once a completed and signed booking form has been submitted to and acknowledged in writing by FSTC to the named client(s). If you have any questions about our terms and conditions please do not hesitate to contact us on the details found on our website.

1. Booking and Payment

Bookings will be confirmed on receipt of a fully complete and signed (or declared) booking form from the client. It is the client's responsibility to ensure that they meet any entry requirements for the course and that the booking form is completed accurately. The booking form should be signed by the client who will be attending the course themselves and the agreement is solely between them and FSTC. Payment in full is required 28 days before the course start date, unless otherwise stated on the booking form. Failure to pay fully within this timescale may forfeit your booking. FSTC reserves the right to refuse any booking without the need to give reason. In this case no agreement is formed and any payment will be returned to the client in full.

2. Cancellation by Client

If a client cancels their booking more than 28 days before the start date of the course, course fees will be refunded less a £30 administration fee. If a client cancels their booking 28 days or less before the course start date then 100% of course fees are forfeited. If a client fails to pay the full course fees 28 days prior to their course start date, FSTC will assume the client has cancelled and their booking will be forfeited.

3. Cancellation and/or Variation of Course by FSTC

The natural world is a dynamic and sometimes unpredictable system by its very nature. The client acknowledges that information about courses is given in good faith; however course content and timings are subject to change at the discretion of FSTC. Whilst every reasonable effort will be made to deliver course content as scheduled, clients recognise that on occasions contingency plans may need to be followed. In such circumstances it is not reasonable for FSTC to be liable for any losses. FSTC reserves the right to cancel courses. Whilst every reasonable effort is made to run courses as planned, there may be occasions such as extreme weather or staff illness that force cancellation of a course. In this unlikely event a full refund will be given to clients or booking transferred to another course of equal value.

4. Client Conduct*

FSTC expects clients to act in a reasonable manner during the course for the safety, wellbeing and enjoyment of all participants. In particular;

- a. Clients will comply with all reasonable instruction and directions given by FSTC staff.
- b. Clients are able to meet the rigours of the course (physically and mentally) and have made FSTC aware of any relevant medical conditions and information to be used in an emergency. If in doubt, clients are advised to consult their GP before booking.
- c. Clients are not permitted to bring or use their own tools during the course (unless specified otherwise on course materials)
- d. Clients are not permitted to light fires without the permission of FSTC staff and fires are never left unattended.
- e. No alcohol or non-prescription drugs are permitted on site and intoxication will not be tolerated.
- f. Clients are responsible for bringing adequate outdoor clothing and equipment. Guidance will be given as part of pre course information.
- g. Clients will take reasonable care of tools and equipment issued during the course, and will be liable for any damage or breakages.
- h. Aggressive and/or discriminatory behaviour, abusive and/or foul language will not be tolerated.

Failure to comply with the above may result in clients being removed from a course without refund. In addition, parents, guardians, teachers and others with a duty of care, are responsible for children adhering to the above.

Prices

Whilst every effort is made to limit prices to those given in the course information fliers & booking form, FSTC reserves the right to alter prices should its costs in hosting an FSTC training increase for reasons beyond its reasonable control (including, without limitation, the cost of labour, transport, materials and venue hire). In the event that a price is altered the client will be notified as soon as reasonably possible and the balance of the altered price will be payable on the same terms as the original price. In the event of the price being increased by 15% or more the client may opt to cancel the booking and will then be entitled to a refund of all monies then paid

Insurance

FSTC tutors are covered to a level of £5,000,000 public liability insurance with a reputable Outdoor Activity insurer. A copy of the insurance certificate can be provided on request. FSTC recommends that clients consider taking out their own personal insurance for activities.

Liability

By the very nature of the outdoor environment, it is comprised of inherent risk. FSTC recognises the benefits of appropriate levels of risk in course activities and works to manage these risks reasonably. Clients accept that accidents, including serious injury and death, can occur without FSTC being at fault and are taking part in activities at their own risk. FSTC only accepts liability for physical injury to a client that is shown to result from the negligence of FSTC. The client acknowledges that other injury, loss, damage and expense (including; loss or damage of personal possessions, money, clothing, equipment and vehicles, loss of fees due to cancellation by client, injury from activities not under instruction or not following given instructions of FSTC staff) however so arising is not the responsibility of FSTC. FSTC will not be responsible for accidents, injury or loss occurring to any third parties taught by attendees of FSTC courses.

Complaint

In the unlikely event that a client has case to make a complaint about a FSTC course, complaint should be made at the time to a member of FSTC staff, so that corrective action can be taken if appropriate. The client accepts that it is unreasonable to take no action during a course but complain later. If an issue remains unresolved a complaint should be made in writing within 28 days of the course finish date. FSTC will not be liable in respect of any complaints received after this time.

Photographs

The client agrees that any photographs taken by FSTC during the course may be used in FSTC and its tutors promotional material, either printed or on the internet unless expressly asked not to.

Changes to this agreement

FSTC reserves the right to update these Terms and Conditions at any time, without notice.

An exception to this point would be when working with a specific client group who have emotional and behaviour difficulties. On this occasion a separate code of conduct and behaviour management agreement will be negotiated before the course commences.*

This refers to adults only. Parental/Guardian consent will be sought for taking photographs of children.*
